

Benefit from a private consultation with seminar leader and foremost expert on offshore banking

Jerome Schneider

Mr. Schneider is offering a limited number of private one-on-one consultations during evening hours of this Offshore Wealth Summit. It is an opportunity to discuss in confidence your individual financial needs and goals, and to explore strategies custom tailored for you that cannot be addressed in open forum.

Half-hour sessions will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis at the rate of $500 per half-hour. Additional participants may join your session for $250 each.

Your consultation will provide you with a comprehensive analysis of your particular personal and business needs for profit, privacy and tax protection. Subjects to be explored will include: how to lower, eliminate or defer taxes...how to choose the best offshore money haven for you...how to start your own private international bank...how to set up a trust...how to evaluate and improve the current offshore strategies you may be employing...how to select the best offshore investment opportunities...and how to safeguard your assets. In addition, your half-hour session will provide you with:

- A reference/workbook, assembled on the spot, covering the topics that relate to your particular situation such as expatriation, owning your own offshore bank, etc.
- A written transcript summary of the consultation faxed to you within the following week. The transcript to include major highlights of the private session along with specific recommendations offered by Mr. Schneider for immediate action and follow-up.
- Referrals to capable outside experts in the U.S. and abroad (bankers, brokers, etc.) who can provide reliable additional financial services. These may include Swiss banks, Cayman Islands, Trustee companies and/or lawyers or accountants.

"30 minutes with Jerome Schneider taught me more about the profit and tax-saving benefits of offshore banking than all the accountants and so-called experts I've met with before!"
